Third ICT@Seniors LLTA in Barcelona

The third project training event was held in Barcelona, Spain in January 28-30, 2020. It was organized by Meet and Map and 2 participants from each partner organization attended the training. The host organization organized a 3-day event which included presentation of organization and its work in regards to seniors in general and seniors and ICT in particular.

The host partner shared good practises and methods in teaching ICT to seniors in the following organizations: Barcelona Libraries, Public Housing for Seniors, Connecta Joven, VINCLESBCN and Cibernarium where the participants had a chance to see how seniors were provided opportunities to learn ICT. The partners had a chance to discuss best practices to be included in the project and the materials that will be developed.
